ITEM 1: Introductions

ITEM 2: Progress on Translocation Review Paper

Discussion: The second draft of the translocation review paper was distributed to the subgroup prior to the teleconference. Not all assignments were completed in time for thorough review by the subgroup.

The subgroup went through the compiled draft in detail, discussing potential revisions and volunteering to supply additional or clarifying information. Specific assignments are designated by a Name highlighted and bolded. Assignments are due back to Dave by October 9, 2009. In addition to the assignments highlighted below, some work remains from previous assignments.

Introduction:

Moved Figure 1 to this section.

Cultural Context:

Jen and Molly will obtain fishing information from the Warm Springs and Yakama Tribes.

A new figure depicting major fishing areas will be developed
(Unassigned)

Status and Trends:

Distribution (new subsection) – Kathryn will develop first draft.

Passage:

Dave will remove some detail and convert this section to one generally describing Factors for Decline as a lead in to why translocation may be needed.

Translocation Programs:

Dave will do some minor editing to opening paragraphs.

All need to review and comment on the two case history example.

Benefits and Risks:

Dave will start editing this section to make it a general discussion of potential benefits, risks, and alternative management options. Mary and Chris will complete any assignments regarding this section for Dave to incorporate. Section will end with recommendation of more thorough analysis of various management options.

The above assignments are due to Dave by October 9.

Dave will compile the next draft and distribute to the subgroup by October 16.

ITEM 3: Next Teleconference

The next teleconference of this subgroup is scheduled for October 26, 2009, from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM (PDT).
