Draft Agenda

ITEM 1: Introductions

ITEM 2: Progress on Translocation Review Paper Task

A draft of the translocation review paper was discussed on August 19, 2009, and a number of assignments were made for the next draft. These assignments were to be completed by September 11, 2009, so they could be incorporated into the paper, and so that a revised draft could be distributed by September 18, 2009.

A revised draft will be distributed on September 18 for discussion during the teleconference. Members of the subgroup should review the draft prior to the teleconference, and be prepared to discuss needed revisions, additions, improvements, etc.

ITEM 3: Next Teleconference

One more teleconference will likely be needed prior to the Lamprey Workshop scheduled for November 18, 2009.
